

Panel Study of Income Dynamics-Child Development Supplement
On-Campus Seminar Series, 2005-2006

All Seminars are held 12-1pm in 6080 ISR Complimentary lunch will be served

Friday, September 16: Frank Stafford, SRC and Department of Economics
The Digital Divide Among Children: Closing or Widening at the Turn of the Decade?

Friday, October 14: Angel Harris (ISR) and Keith Robinson (Sociology)
School Social Capital of White and Black Adolescents: The Role of Parental Involvement in Children's Sociability with Teachers, Staff, and Other School Officials

Friday, November 11: HwaJung Choi, Department of Economics
Health Impact on Future Labor Outcome: Using PSID Siblings

Friday, December 16: Matthew Davis, Pediatrics, Internal Medicine, and Public Policy
*Weigh Me Now, or Weigh Me Later: Factors Associated with 5-Year BMI Transitions
Among Children*

Friday, January 13: Keith Robinson (Sociology) and Angel Harris (ISR)
Title: To Punish or Not To Punish: Parental Responses to Poor Achievement

Friday, February 3: Patti Andreski, Panel Study of Income Dynamics
The Intergenerational Transmission of Asthma?

Friday, March 17: Pamela Davis-Kean, ISR
Joining the Controversy: What does the PSID-CDS have to say about child care influences on child development?

Friday, April 21: Irene Ng, Social Work and Economics
Intergenerational and Neighborhood Impacts on Adolescent Risk Behavior

Wednesday, May 24: Geranda Noteen, Maastricht University (Netherlands) currently a visiting fellow at the Wiener Center for Social Policy at the Kennedy School in Cambridge
Poverty in Europe and the USA: Exchanging Official Measurement Methods
(by Chris de Neubourg and Geranda Notten)