Hello, my name is (Interviewer) from the University of Michigan Survey Research Center.

May I speak with (Name)?

I am calling about the Family Economics Study, Child Development Supplement. The purpose of this study is to help researchers learn more about young people, and what helps them succeed in life. We collected some information from your family in 1997 and 2002, and would like to talk with you again.

Before I begin, I want you to know that this interview is completely voluntary. If we should come to any questions you don't want to answer, just let me know and I will go on to the next question. The answers that you give will be kept confidential to the maximum extent allowable under federal, state, and local law. The interview will take about [2 children and same OCG and Priority=No: 15 minutes / A*ll others (one child; 2 children and different OCGs; 2 children and same OCG and Priority=Yes):* 30 minutes].. We are offering you $20 in appreciation for your time and effort answering our questions.

FOR TAPED IWS ONLY: This interview is being taped for quality control.

To help us protect your privacy, we have obtained a Certificate of Confidentiality from the National Institutes of Health. The Confidentiality Certificate adds special protection for research information that identifies you. With this Certificate, the researchers cannot be forced, even under a court order or subpoena, to release information that could identify you. You should know, however, that researchers may provide information to appropriate individuals or agencies if harm to you, harm to others, or child abuse becomes a concern. In addition, the agency funding this research – the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development – may see your information if it audits us. They cannot report anything that will harm you, and they too are bound to protect your privacy.

You should understand that a Certificate of Confidentiality does not prevent you from voluntarily releasing information about yourself or your involvement in this research. If an insurer, employer, or other person obtains your written consent to receive research information, then the researchers may not use the Certificate to withhold that information.
